

GS7 and above or the equivalent in any other federal wage grade system).

9. Membership Eligibility Categories. The following categories of membership constitute active and honorary members.

a. Active Member. An active member is one who falls into one or more of the categories listed below:

(1) All active duty military officers of the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Reserve and National Guard, and their dependent family members and any other commissioned equivalent uniformed personnel, including Coast Guard, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), and U.S. Public Health Service.

(2) All DoD civilian employees of grade GS7 (or the equivalent in any other federal wage grade system) and above, working within the greater CamLej area.

(3) Retired or honorably discharged commissioned officers of the U.S. Armed Forces and their dependent family members, and retired Federal Government Service civilian personnel of grade GS7 or equivalent and above.

(4) U.S. Naval Academy midshipmen, cadets of the Army, Air Force, and Coast Guard Academies, officer candidates when in an active duty training status, Navy Enlisted Scientific Education Program officer candidates, and Reserve Officer Training Corpsmen (midshipmen, cadets, etc.) only when on active duty during college vacation periods.

(5) Active duty commissioned military personnel of foreign nations when authorized exchange privileges in the United States or overseas.

(6) Uniformed, paid members of the Red Cross assigned to the greater CamLej area.

(7) Civilian members of the Military Affairs Committee of local Chambers of Commerce.

b. Honorary Member. This type of membership extends the same privileges and serves as an active member. To be eligible for honorary membership, one must fall within one of the following categories:

(1) Unmarried widows/widowers of military officers who died while on active duty or while retired from any of the Armed Forces.

(2) Wives of military officers of the Armed Forces being held as prisoners of war or who are missing in action.

(3) Individuals who have distinguished themselves in direct association with the Marine Corps as determined by the CO. These individuals will be granted honorary membership for a 12 month period and, upon expiration of the period, their continued honorary membership status will be reviewed by the CO. These individuals may include members of Congress, local or state government officials, and civilian community leaders.

10. Extension of Privileges

a. Privileges may be extended to unattached ladies/gentlemen who otherwise may be ineligible for membership, for the purpose of creating an atmosphere where unmarried members of the Club may meet and make acquaintances. Privileges in this case will be limited to the duration of the particular social event being sponsored (e.g., "Happy Hours" or Club sponsored social events). Sponsorship in the context of the above should be defined as joint sponsorship between the sponsoring group and the Club. This group generally does not include unattached enlisted service members.

b. Requests for extension of privileges will be submitted to the Club Manager in accordance with the following:

(1) Requests by civilians for extension of privileges will be submitted to the Club Manager by either telephonic or written request.

(2) These requests by civilians will generally take the form of a request for catering services and use of the Club
